

JIANGXI SPONSORSHIP NEEDS

March 2012

Foster Care Needs

HY, girl, age 11, cerebral palsy - Nanchang

HY is a cheerful, outgoing girl who is warm and friendly to everyone she meets. Her foster mother knows she is enjoying kindergarten because HY comes home and talks all about what she did and learned that day. HY is doing quite well academically, keeping up with things like reading, writing, adding, subtracting, and memorizing Tang poetry. She especially enjoys song and dance activities. HY's self-help skills are hampered by her poor hand-eye coordination and lack of strength in her right hand. Foster Care Sponsorship = $51/month

FY, girl, age 23, cerebral palsy – Yingtan

FY is able to care for personal needs. She is unsteady on her feet and must hold onto a railing to get up and down stairs. She enjoys going outside for walks and is comfortable going out on her own or with members of her foster family. FY has a cheerful, spirited personality and although she is unable to control her facial muscles, she loves to laugh. Foster Care Sponsorship = $408 per year ($34/month)

FY, girl, age 8, cognitive disability – Yingtan

FY takes care of her own personal needs. Her ability to communicate with others is slowly improving, mainly through the use of gestures rather than spoken language. FY enjoys walks with her foster mother and grandmother each evening and also likes watching cartoons on television. Foster Care Sponsorship = $408 per year ($34/month)

JZ, boy, age 18 months, developmental delay - Ji'an

JZ moved to a new foster home and quickly became comfortable in his new environment. He is especially attached to his foster mother. JZ is now walking on his own and saying a few simple words. He enjoys singing and dancing along with his favorite cartoon characters. JZ eats well, loves rice and is learning to use a spoon to feed himself. He is a sound sleeper. Foster Care Sponsorship = $408 per year ($34/month)
